EIGHTY MEN IN SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.

Since the women of Norway now have equal rights with men they have dissolved the Society for Suffrage for Women, there being no reason for its activities.

Beginning Saturday Jan. 16th this store will open each Saturday morning at 8:30 and close at 9 P. M. each Saturday evening instead of 9:30 as heretofore.

A Shoe Rummage for which we predict enormous results.

There are women's satin shoes which are $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00. There are women's Suede shoes at $4.00 and $5.00 a pair. Patent leather shoes at $3.50 to $5.00. Grey Kid Shoes were $5.50, tan calf and kid boots were $3.50 and $5.00. There are gun metal and many other kinds—not all sizes—some are narrow widths—all are highest quality and good styles.

For these broken lines of women's $3.50 to $7.00 shoes we quote 3 rummage prices, $1.95, $1.65 and $1.35 a pair.

When women can get shoes like these for such small prices, $1.35, $1.65 and $1.95 a pair they surely will see the economy of selecting at least 2 or 3 pairs.

Lines are broken but there are so many models represented that a good fit is easy to obtain.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) How can I reduce my weight?

(2) When a young man calls on his lady friend does he take care of his overcoat and hat?

(3) When away on a visit and after returning home, please give me a good formula for thanking your hostess for the good time you have had while at her home.

(4) Do you believe in fortune telling?

(5) I dress very stylishly, am attractive and have winning ways. Why is it that the boys won't go with me?

(6) What shall I say when introduced to a young man?

(7) After meeting a young man, when you are away on a visit, and he takes you auto riding, is it proper to say, when you return home, I am glad I met you and have enjoyed the ride?

(8) My sister and I were calling on a girl friend one evening. She told us her cousin was going to take her to the theatre. He had met my sister, but never met before. When he called he remained only a short time in leaving his cousin said: "Are you going to take me to the theatre?" He said "I don't know," and walked out. We girls went and came in while we were there and saw with us. Wouldn't you call this young man cheap?

(9) How can I overcome blushing?

THORNS & ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

(1) Lean meat, vegetables free from starch, fruit not containing sugar, gluten bread and three pints of water a day drunk between meals is a good reduction diet. Take quantities of exercise. Housework is splendid; move quickly. Hot soda baths are also helpful.

(2) Yes, if there is a hattrack.

(3) After telling of your safe arrival say that the good time enjoyed under your hospitable roof will always be a pleasant memory, or some such thing.

(4) Fortune tellers often take money from people who are credulous. The future is hidden from all. Some people make clever guesses.

(5) I wonder if it is because you show too plainly that you want them to do so. I do not know you, dear so I cannot hurt you by saying that the too anxious ones disgust the boys. A girl should be courteous, but not cunning.

(6) Simply how, shake hands and repeat his name.

(7) Thank him for the ride. Say nothing about your pleasure in meeting him.

(8) Probably he was embarrassed when he met strange girls. He certainly did not know how to be polite. (9) Blushing is largely a matter of nerves. Keep from getting excited and learn to control your emotions and your nerves and you will overcome it.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) If a fellow whom I do not know smiles at me should I pay any attention to him?

(2) There is a young man who used to go with me, but I broke up with him and there is another who made a date with me and did not keep it. If I meet either of these should I speak to them?

(3) Please tell me how to play pool.

(4) Please give me a recipe for deviled food cake.

THANK YOU.

(1) Pay no attention to any young man who has not been introduced to you.

(2) If you meet either of these boys, speak politely to them. That will not compromise you in the least.

(3) Have guests in circle. Postmaster in center calls: "I send a letter from Chicago to New York." The ones bearing the names of these cities change seats quickly. General delivery all change seats. The postman tries to get a vacant chair. If he succeeds the one left standing is postman.

(4) Devil's Food Cake—One-half cup milk, 2 oz. chocolate, 1/4 cup butter, 2 cups pastry flour, 1 cup sugar, 4 eggs, 2 teaspoons baking powder. Melt chocolate and stir into the cream butter and sugar, add yolk of eggs. Add milk and flour a little at a time till all is used. Beat thoroughly. Bake 45 minutes in moderate oven.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

Do you like hot bread for dinner? Place a pie tin in your steamer, then put a loaf of bread on it, close tight and put over potato kettle when you put potatoes on to boil. When dinner is ready, you have nice, fresh hot bread right from the steamer! This is just as nice as when wrapped in a wet cloth and placed in hot oven and saves gas.

To melt ice on doorstep, sprinkle salt on ice and in a little while ice will be melted.

For apple pie, single apple over a flame, turning it from side to side; the peeling comes off like a scalded tomato; apples taste fine.

By soaking oatmeal over night it can be cooked in 15 minutes and have the flavor of cooking many hours.

To make brooms last longer, dip the brush part half way to where it is tied in the brush in hot suds once in a while; dry well. It toughens the straw.

To make old wooden sink look like white enamel, take white oilcloth, fit it over the sink perfectly and tack down underneath. Unless you see it close by you will think it white enamel.

Filling for Sofa Pillows—Get a dime's worth of cotton batting, cut it in small squares and heat in oven in a baking pan, leaving it there for half an hour. Do not let the cotton scorch. Every little square will be twice its size and will be as light as feathers and as fluffy. Will not mash down if laid on.

HOMEMADE BAKING POWDER.

Recipe No. 1—Mix well and sift together one pound of cream of tartar and one-half pound cornstarch. Add one-half pound baking soda and sift again several times.

Keep in tin cans, and after two weeks, during which time it is undergoing the sweating process, sift again. But it is ready for use immediately after first mixing if you care to use it.

Recipe No. 2—Mix together one-half pound tartaric acid, 1 1/2 pounds cornstarch and 1 1/2 pounds cream tartar. Sift several times, add 1 1/4 pounds baking soda. Sift again. Put in closed cans for two weeks, sift again; will not lump again.

FOR SORE THROAT OR QUINCY.

Take bowl, put boiling water in it, and add a few drops of essence of peppermint. Put a funnel over bowl and inhale vapor. It is cooling and in case of quincy it will help gather. It is also good when you have a cough.

THE TABLE.

Apricot Fomage—Take one pound dried apricots, wash clean and soak over night in cold water. Boil in same water until perfectly tender, then put in sugar to suit taste. While still hot put them in a bowl with only half cup of the juice, mash up fine, then add one cup sugar and half box gelatine dissolved, mixing all together thoroughly. When it begins to cool, stir in beaten whites of four eggs. Put in mold that has been dipped in cold water, and put in cool place. For dressing take a quart of milk and put on to boil in double boiler. Beat yolks of the eggs with half cup sugar until they are white, then put in one tablespoon cornstarch and a little vanilla. When milk boils, mix it all and let come to boiling point. When cool serve with the apricot fomage. You can use whipped cream for dressing if preferred.

Fruit Pudding—One orange, one banana, half can pineapple; prepare fruit by cutting in small cubes (do not use juice from pineapple) and carefully remove all white skin from orange. Place fruit in pretty glass dish. Put one pint milk in double boiler. Separate white and yolks of two eggs, add one tablespoon cornstarch to yolks, stir in milk and cook well. Remove from fire, flavor with almond. Beat whites to stiff froth, flavor with rose, fold very lightly in custard, pour over fruit; serve cold. A dainty dessert for six people.

"Orange Toast"—A recipe which is very tasty and also a fine way of getting rid of stale bread which otherwise would probably be thrown out. Take stale bread, cut in slices, dip each piece separately in following mixture: One egg (beaten well) to one-half pint milk. When bread is soft in the mixture, put the frying pan on, have it very hot, and put slices on pan. Fry until brown. Then remove from pan, slice oranges on them and sprinkle with powdered sugar (or the granulated). This makes a delicious dish and also a very inexpensive one.
